Triple Creek RV Music Park Newsletter

OUR FAVORITE NATIVE:
PILEATED "WOODPICKER"

Always check our web site for current activities and schedules!!!

Triple Creek's own family of the Redhead Express will be here January 9th, 2016.

Folks, they only keep getting better.....and lager (they now have some new family members). The girls have grown up after all the years of appearing here at Triple Creek, and started families of their own. However, the extended family is traveling and contributing to this wonderful family of music. As usual, they will be providing workshops, so come early, and plan to stay late as you get to mingle and work with this group of professionals. Its certainly going to be a great time as they come home and share with us their life's many adventures. Pack plenty of cash to donate so they can continue in their education and travels.

Work Campers

Please take time to thank the many work campers that make their way through Triple Creek. Each has been a great fit who enjoy long-term camping and add a little extra adventure to their trips.

New Full Time Camper!

We drove into Triple Creek Texas one day and found this new camper sitting there near the entrance. Its new! Where did it come from we thought to ourselves. Finally DJ told the truth. He said this was Oscar's and Queenie's trailer that had been WASHED! Yes, all the green and black gung was gone. DJ did the cleaning job and was quite proud of it. Wish we had a before and after picture. Now, if Oscar and Queenie wander around looking for their dingy trailer, we know that he did too good of a job. DJ even washed the tires and wheels. Wonder if he will clean the interior too!

Karen and Marc got a new addition to the family.

Here is little Scarlett. She is a 4 month old African Grey. This is a bird that is going to talk and talk. We know this because even at her young age, she is making all these birdie noises when Karen feeds her. BTW, this bird will only eat her food warmed. No room temp food for this little lady!!

JOB WANTED!

Here is a picture of "Little" Ricky. He is looking for a full time job in the Woodville area. If you know of anything, please let Karen or Marc know and we will relay the message. He currently has a part time job in town, but is looking for something that will provide him with full time work.

Little Ricky is a great hand around Triple Creek and if you have noticed, he is willing to pitch in and do everything. His youth is driving him to constantly be in motion, We are willing to tell any potential employer just how dedicated and reliable he is.

POT LUCK DINNERS!

Please remember that the events on the weekends are all FREE. We also ALWAYS have a Pot Luck dinner before we kick off the music playing. If you weren't able to pick up something for the Pot Luck, just donate cash to the Pink Pig. Donations are used for Jam Shack supplies, as well as the ever growing cost of electricity that is used by the AC.

Those providing the dinner will appreciate everyone participating.

THERE ARE TWO KINDS OF PEOPLE. THE GIVERS AND THE TAKERS. THE TAKERS EAT WELL, THE GIVERS SLEEP WELL.

Charles!

Our very own professional nature photographer has promised to come home next week. Hopefully he will stay for a while. Charles and Deadwood Dan tend to pal around quite a bit, so there is no telling what those two will get into while he is here.

Keep reading the newsletter for stories on their adventures.

Jerry and Suzanne

We all know Jerry and Suzanne left Triple Creek Texas last month for a trip back to Oregon. Has anyone heard from them? We are wondering when they will be back. Suzanne said she wants to be back to Triple Creek in time for the Thanksgiving dinner due to the wonderful family atmosphere that occurs as we all gather together to celebrate all the goodness that we have.

Guess?

What we have here is Kenny's house, and in front of it is his golf cart. Now inquiring minds are trying to come up with a reason why he needs a golf cart. As you know, he lives about 75 feet away from the Jam Shack where all the action takes place. Therefore, he shouldn't need a golf cart to get there. Then he lives about 50 feet from the bath house, so once again, he shouldn't need a golf cart for that..

It has been suggested that Kenny is feeling his youth, and wants to start streaking again. However he is also feeling his age, so he doesn't want to actually run to streak, but rather ride his golf cart. The other option may be that he wants to join the group of people that walk the circle on a regular basis. But once again, walking is too much of an effort, so he plans on riding the golf cart. We aren't sure what he is going to do with it., but he said that he needed it. So watch for Kenny. We may put a flashing light on the top of the cart and let him be the park police. There is no telling what would happen to him if we give him a little authority. Inquiring minds are waiting to see what comes out of his set of hot wheels. Stay tuned.

The Standley family.

Please welcome our new permanent residents here at Triple Creek. Pictured as Coach/Lance, Sheryl, and Farah... They also have two other daughters that were out on the dirt road running. Good news is that they were running for sport. In fact Ella is on the Woodville Lady Eagles Cross-Country team. In the team's first action at the Season Opener meet, the girls all placed in the top ten. In fact, our own Ella won the race with a time of 14.01. Just so you know, Woodville was competing with 4A Bridge City and 5A Nederland in each race. Woodville showed no signs of weakness competing with the larger schools. The girls team had enough points over the competition to take the meet win! Congratulations to the Lady Eagles and our very own Ella.

By the way, the mom, Sheryl has music in her background, and did sing in the circle the first night they were visiting here. We are thinking that we will see more of her and the girls in the circle after they get settled in. Welcome!.

Here is our pretty bird Palo. If you don't think he is pretty, just ask him and he will be more than happy to tell you how pretty he is. As we are getting ready to go to town or the Jam Shack., Palo always expresses his concern with a "Bye-Bye". He is so sweet.....well, after about 10:30 in the morning. This is no morning bird, because before this time, he a grouch. After that time he just wants to snuggle.

In The News!

- Tommy is very busy with his nephew's proposed new RV Resort in Texas City / La Marque. He has been packing and moving and moving and packing. In fact, as of this writing, it looks like he is just about gone. We'll miss him and his activities. To be honest, who ever lives in that spot is always a character. Before Tommy was Ray Ray. Oh my gosh!
- Ricky and family are the new Park Hosts. This has really inspired Ricky. If you know him at all, you will find it surprising that he is now getting up and riding the park before 9:00 am. We are all surprised to see this change in him.
- Deadwood Dan has his mother coming to live with us here at Triple Creek. This is really news because Deadwood is now spending considerable time at his house....and his mom isn't even here yet. What we discovered is that he is cleaning up. This is no small job, so he is busy. We are guessing that his mom is going to really try to straighten him up. We can't wait!
- Miss Ethel is doing fine. She is no longer driving, but she has a host of friends that take care of her. She is a wonderful lady, and always has a smile n her face. Neighbors go grocery shopping for her and deliver to her door. Now that is service.
- If you have any news about people that have passed through Triple Creek, please let the editor know, and it shall be published.

BIGFOOT

We continue to have sporadic sightings of Bigfoot around Triple Creek.. Big-foot appears friendly enough, but has never engaged anyone in conversation. We guess its just part of the Triple Creek legend. Say hello and don't be concerned about the big fellow.

Welcome Back Snowbirds!

Snowbirds are always welcome back to Triple Creek Texas. Its very typical for the Snowbirds to join together and come up with projects that benefit Triple Creek residents. Well, the year of 2015 is not going to be any different. We already have one snowbird that has arrived and he has gone to work planning this years project.. You see, a lot of people like to use the shop to do odds and ends on their cars or trailers or anything. So it was decided that since we are all getting older, the concept of crawling under a vehicle was for the birds (no pun intended). We put our minds together and tried to determine how best to resolve that issue. The solution was the installation of a car lift.

Soon we will be pouring cement and working on the installation of a car lift. With that equipment, it will make it a lot easier to do the little jobs of greasing and inspecting the under side of our vehicles.

The lift is going on the outside of the shop so it will be next to all the tools. One of the snowbirds said the next project will be to install a roof over the lift. Oh these snowbirds can think of more things to do. Sure hope they think of splitting some wood so we have a nice warm Jam Shack this winter.

Always remember that Triple Creek is a dealer for the much desired Blueridge guitar that is part of the Bluegrass sound.

Many of our good friends have passed down the dirt road coming to Triple Creek, Texas. In loving memory of all those people, we have decided to assemble a memorial at the entrance to our little slice of heaven here on earth. So many people have found happiness here that a memorial just seemed appropriate. The pictures show the start of the paved brick pathway. The concept is to have a continuous water fountain out there. Rocks will be distributed around the water fountain, and there will be a plaque with our deceased friends names painted on it. While our friends are gone, they certainly are not forgotten. They all had an impact on our life.

If you have brick or stone or plants to donate to this cause, please let us know, and we'll come pick up. Deadwood Dan and Ricky have been dedicating a lot of work to this so far, and here is the beginning of it. Of course more work is to be done as additional brick must be put down, and then the water garden constructed. Dan is also going to carve a nice "angel" bench for one corner. If you have any other suggestions as to how this memorial could honor our friends that have gone on to a new life, please let us know. Please thank Deadwood Dan for all his hard work on this Memorial. He has found the brick and stone. Bartered for it, and now is doing the installation with a lot of help from Ricky. Its going to look great, and we all appreciate it.

You can thank the work campers for all that they do as well! They are all a big help to keep Triple Creek RV the wonderful place we all enjoy...
THANKS!

New Years Dance! Its not too early to start thinking about our New years eve dance. This year we will be featuring Lil Teri who will bring her musical talents and line of comedy to the stage. Of course the Dirt Road Express band will be there to support her.

Come dance the night away at Triple Creek !

Who is this?

In last month's newsletter, we had this picture on the left. We all know this lady, and she is a permanent resident of Triple Creek, Texas. Well we didn't have any correct guesses as to who it is, so we decided to give you another hint. On the far right is another picture of her and the man that would eventually be her husband.

Now what started this story is that this lady likes to sit outside the Jam shack and tell others just what a good looking lady she was in her younger days. In fact, she often eludes to a picture of her and how she looked in her coconut bra. Well last month, we didn't show the entire picture and cropped her face. However, we now have two pictures of her.. Lets see, to give you a hint of who this is, we will tell you that she now lives in a park model next to DJ.

BTW, this is the same lady that was out in her leopard print house coat the night our house burned down. She was proudly showing that off to all the fire fighters that showed up. Story goes, that as the fire got hotter, she was hiking that leopard print a little higher all the time. Gosh she looked great in that evening glow of the fire..

Let us know who this is. The picture on the right is a more accurate depiction of our current resident! Let us know. Send in those guesses.
