Triple Creek's own family of the Redhead Express will be here January 9th, 2016.

Folks, they only keep getting better.....and larger (they now have some new family members). The girls have grown up after all the years of appearing here at Triple Creek, and started families of their own. However, the extended family is traveling and contributing to this wonderful family of music. As usual, they will be providing workshops, so come early, and plan to stay late as you get to mingle and work with this group of professionals. Its certainly going to be a great time as they come home and share with us their lifes many adventures. Pack plenty of cash to donate so they can continue in their education and travels.

New Years Dance!
Put it on your calendar. This year, "Lil Teri" will be at Triple Creek to provide her brand of humor and music. Lil Teri is very funny and takes her every day life for material, She constantly states the material just writes itself. She also plays musical instruments and is a stellar singer. She was recently selected to entertain at Moody Gardens in Galveston.

Whether she's talking about crazy marriage, her growing kids, her beloved grandparents, doing one of her dead-on impressions or joking about her life growing up in a barbershop quartet, Lil Teri takes her audience on a hilarious, heartfelt journey, finding enjoyment in the absurdities of life

Lil Teri became fascinated with comedy very early on. While her mom spent countless hours raising a house hold of musicians, Lil Teri s and her sister Beverly would pass the time watching the popular TV shows of the 60's and 70's. She became so engaged in the performances of her favorite comic personalities, it didn't take long before she began to emulate the characters she came to love. On any given night, she would entertain his family with remarkably accurate portrayals from shows like Carol Burnett, "Red Skelton" , "Dean Martin" as well as "Rowan and Martin".

Internet

Here at Triple Creek, we have FREE WiFi. It is provided by a connection with HughesNet. The good news is that this can be a wonderful provider to all of us on a regular basis. However, it is a service that we all share. While this is a commercial account with a lot of capacity, we are allocated a certain amount of capacity. Once this total capacity is exceeded, the account becomes throttled for the next 24 hours.

Streaming a movie or TV show will quickly exceed our total capacity, and as a result, the capacity of the service will be limited for everyone in the park. Therefore, please limit your use of the WiFi to checking your email and stuff like that.

JOB WANTED!

“Little” Ricky is looking for a full time job in the Woodville area. If you know of anything, please let Karen or Marc know and we will relay the message. He currently has a part time job in town, but is looking for something that will provide him with full time work.

Little Ricky is a great hand around Triple Creek and if you have noticed, he is willing to pitch in and do everything. His youth is driving him to constantly be in motion, We are willing to tell any potential employer just how dedicated and reliable he is.

POT LUCK DINNERS!

Please remember that the events on the weekends are all FREE. We ALWAYS have a Pot Luck dinner before we kick off the music playing. If you weren't able to pick up something for the Pot Luck, just donate cash to the Pink Pig. Donations are used for Jam Shack supplies, as well as the ever growing cost of electricity that is used by the AC.

Those providing the dinner will appreciate everyone participating.

It's amazing the number of great people in my life that I wouldn't have ever met if it wasn't for music.

Joggers Christmas Tree. There is a select group of people that are making a daily trek out on the dirt road to get their exercise. Apparently they also find the need to bring along decorations. Here is the tree that they started on. Not shown is another tree that they developed a liking to that is standing right next to this one. This is right along the dirt road, so you'll see in coming and going.

Sandy?

Where is Sandy? We have been talking about her lately, and have thought she would be dropping back in about this time of the year, but we haven't seen her, or heard from her. For those of you that don't remember her, that's good. She is / was a secret agent for the Canadian Mounties and was down here at Triple Creek for a while hiding out. She kind of kept to herself, but we found out the real secrets in her life. Her cover was that she was a professional tennis player. She often played with the celebrities....and of course they had to win. Sandy, we wish you would come back and hide out here at Triple Creek again. We promise we won't tell anyone about your past. It's a secret here.
